Pax Christi Peace Sunday

Second collection this weekend.

The work of Pax Christi is based on the gospel and inspired by faith. Our vision is of a world where people can live in peace, without fear of violence in all its forms. Rooted in Catholic Christianity, we work with all who share our values to abolish war and create communities of peace and justice.

You can visit their website:

This Peace Sunday you can read the Holy Father's message here:

Proclaim the wonders of the Lord
among all the peoples.

When was the last time you went on retreat?

This weekend our “Confirmandi” are on retreat in Whitstable. It is perhaps the most important part of their sacramental preparation as it gives them space to discern what the Lord is asking of them at this stage in their pilgrimage. The word “retreat” literally means to ‘leave the field of battle’, and so all of us would do well to take some time away from the rigours of our labours. But, don’t we do this when we have a holiday!? Yes and no. This is usually about relaxation and perhaps even cultural enrichment, but even so the etymology of the word is ‘holy day’ and so even on holiday we still need to say our prayers and take our place at the foot of the cross as the Church celebrates the Most Holy Eucharist in the Holy Mass.

A retreat is a holiday for the soul as we leave behind all the worldly distractions that prevent us from properly reflecting on the vocation to which God has called us - firstly the universal call to holiness and then that particular service or duty that God asks of us for Him, His Church and His Holy People. Our Lady tells us, ‘do whatever he tells you’, but how can we do this if we do not take time away with Christ. Even if we can’t ‘go away’, we can still ‘get away’ by spending some time in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and at least twice a year the parish will hold mornings of reflection to prepare for Advent or Lent. Perhaps the easiest ‘retreat win’, is participation in the events of Holy Week, especially the Easter Triduum.

A retreat is for everyone, but especially beneficial for those who have discerned a calling to ministry, such as a Proclaimer of the Word (Reader) or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Recognizing the privilege of having the Word of God on their lips or handling the precious body and blood of the Lord they understand the need to take time away with Christ, ‘to know him more clearly, to love him more dearly and follow him more nearly, day by day’.

With my prayers and best wishes, Fr. Simon.

We pray for those who have died: Abraham Jacob RIP, Teresa Morey RIP, Maureen Ennor RIP, Obal Usang RIP, Adrienne Lockwood RIP
