Lord, come to my aid!

“We should keep running steadily in the race we have started”

23rd August marks the end of my 1st year as Parish Priest. It has been quite a roller-coaster, with much grace, but also plenty of challenge. One highlight was the Easter Triduum, and despite the later hour, it was very well attended. It was a wonderful celebration of our one parish, with many servers and musicians from across our worshipping communities all gathered to sing 'Alleluia' to the Lord. We had a fruitful sacramental season, with three Adults baptisms, three receptions and a confirmation; followed by the Sacraments of Initiation for catechetical aged children. Then great numbers of children received the Lord for the first time in Holy Communion, and a significant number of teenagers received Confirmation from Bishop Richard. These are signs of the Lord's goodness and of fertile ground for our mission to announce the Gospel; all supported by the good work of our parish and deanery schools.

There remain significant challenges. We are aware of the sadness concerning Our Lady of the Rosary; as 'one body, one spirit in Christ', something that affects one part, affects us all. No doubt the communities at St Mary Magdalene and St Martha's are already open to including in their rotas and teams the incredible gifts and talents of OLR community members, because, actually, the people of Sidley are already, rightly, part of, and essential to our shared mission to proclaim the Kingdom. Our financial situation remains challenging, and so everyone must be ready to face renewal and new challenges, both in terms of our financial giving and our time. We must not fall into the trap, 'but Father, we've always done it this way!'

When challenge comes, we mustn't be like the people who greeted Jeremiah, 'this fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin'. Instead, take the words of the psalmist, 'he put a new song into my mouth, praise of God. Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord'. And as St Paul exhorts, 'with so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in faith and brings it to perfection.'

With every blessing, Fr Simon.

October Parish Lunch

For the past few years we have had a wonderful parish lunch in October. The team, led by Margaret Von Speyr, is retiring and we thank them sincerely. If this very popular event is to continue, then we, of course, need a new co-ordinator and team to organise it and run it. It's up to you!

Parish Pilgrimage 2020

If you are interested and haven't registered this with the Parish office please would you do so by August 23rd.

Due to changes at the Restaurant, prices have gone up considerably, making it too expensive by the time we add on transport.

St Mary Magdalene Memorial Garden

The memorial garden is reaching its capacity. It may be possible to expand the area for burial of ashes, but only if we can find a new volunteer to prepare the plots and liaise with the parish office as and when required. Please contact the parish office if you can help. Many thanks.

Would you be interested in becoming a CAFOD School Volunteer?

School Volunteers are invited by Catholic primary or secondary schools to deliver lively and motivating presentations about CAFOD's work and mission in assemblies and classrooms. CAFOD will provide training, support and the materials needed to deliver the presentations.

Teaching experience is not a prerequisite, simply the ability to communicate effectively with children and young people. As a School Volunteer you will be part of a team and a friendly network of people with shared values and commitments. You will have the opportunity to gain experience of working in the voluntary sector and expand your skills set.
