Public Worship in Lockdown 3

Although, public worship is permitted in Lockdown 3, the obligation to hear Mass on Sunday remains suspended and we note that some Churches locally in Brighton, St Leonard's and Hastings have closed either because they do not have the stewards or to protect the NHS locally.

If you feel it best to stay at home and Live Stream at the moment you should do so without feeling any pressure to be at a public Mass.

If you require assistance to come to and from Mass (including lifts in other people's cars) or while at Mass, you can only be supported (or driven) by a person who is part of your household or support bubble, as household mixing is not permitted in or outside of the Church.

If you wish to be at a public Mass for devotional reasons, try to balance this with due prudence: Perhaps only come to one Mass at week, and make sure you wear a face covering over mouth and nose (unless exempt), sanitize your hands, complete the track and trace, maintain social distance throughout, and do not mix with anyone who is not in your housebound in the Church or outside the Church; follow the directions of the stewards and please only receive Holy Communion in the hand and then go straight home. Please do not gather to chat after Mass – we are in Lockdown.

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep you covenant.

1st Sunday of Lent B: The Covenant

The 1st Sunday of Lent always focusses on the Temptation of Christ. We are tempted in many ways, physically and spiritually. Your doctor will encourage you to stay away from cake and anything that tastes good. Spiritually, the devil will want you to forget the Covenant and stay away from the Word of God. Remember, 'man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God'.

The Old Testament reading reminds us of the 1st Covenant with Noah. What do you think when you see a rainbow? Is it a sign of some political activism? No, not really. Is it a sign of thanksgiving to health and key workers in a pandemic? Maybe, but its true meaning is far more profound.

Above all this, it is a sign that God has made a covenant with his people: "Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so, the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh."

The Great Flood in Scripture is a sign of our Baptism, in which a flood of water flows over us, and instead of being destructive, it is creative. Yes, it washes away the filth of sin (original and personal), but it creates us anew as a child of God. This Lent, it would be a praiseworthy practice to reflect deeply on our Baptismal Promises, which are constructed from the Apostles' Creed. With every blessing, Fr Simon.

We pray for those who have died: Mary Munn RIP, Paddy Pearson RIP, Mary Bird RIP, Margaret Mary Fox RIP, Elisa Leppard nee Capaldi RIP (NB: it is taking about a month to arrange funerals at the moment and they remain restricted to 30 close family and friends).

We pray for the sick: Roy Cox, Margaret Pink, Margaret Hitchman, Martin Stiles, David Spooner, Doreen Turner, Martin Murphy, Samuel Barden.

Church Capacities: 36+ people at St Martha's Church and 47+ people at St Mary Magdalene Church. Due to some damage to the windows in STMM Church, some further benches have been roped off.

Parish Funerals: It is a great sadness that the government regulations mean that only 30 close family and friends may attend parish funerals. If you wish to be considered for a place at a parish funeral you must speak with the official next of kin, as named by the Funeral Director, as they will provide the Parish (in advance of the day) a list of approved attendees. Please do not come to Funerals unless they have confirmed that your name has been included on the Formal Track & Trace Form. There are potentially huge fines for breaching the 30 limit. Thank you for your understanding and your prayers for the deceased.
