First Holy Communion (updated)

2020 Children: our delayed parish celebrations are either 25th June or 3rd July. Each family is allocated one bench, which holds six people (including the candidate). Although, we hope the restrictions are lifted on 21st June, we plan cautiously in case some limitations remain. Twenty children per celebration allows us to keep space between each family, and six per bench keeps us under the 50% capacity permitted for one-off celebrations.

2021 Children: our priests are hearing First Confessions at 10.30am on Saturdays: 5th June, 12th June and 19th June. As the end of the school year approaches, we encourage you to make use of these dates. So far, 18% of those who signed up for the 'at home' course have made their Confession. Remember, you need to have watched & read the gospel, be attending Mass either in person or via Live Stream and completed the 1st four chapters of the 'I Belong' book before your First Confession. We encourage Catholic parents also to make a confession. Help sheets:

After your First Confession you can book a place for your First Holy Communion on either 25th September or 2nd October at 12noon at St Martha's, and also complete the remaining six chapters of 'I Belong'.

The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the Lord's name.

Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity

It was suggested that if we wrote nothing more than 'body, blood, soul, and divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ' to describe what we receive in Holy Communion, we would merit a basic pass in our Theology exams on the Eucharist.

*O bread of heaven, beneath this veil,
thou dost my very God conceal;
my Jesus, dearest treasure, hail;
I love thee and adoring kneel.
Each loving soul by thee is fed with thine own self in form of bread'.*

In Holy Communion Jesus gives himself to us totally, holding nothing back, and so, we are invited to make as full as possible response, holding nothing of ourselves back in our commitment of service to Him and the Church. The Eucharist is more than just Holy Communion, referring to the whole sacrifice of the Mass. Through human eyes, it may seem that Mass is 'boring', but with faithful eyes we see re-presented 'beneath this veil' the Last Supper, Calvary, and the Resurrection, the central mystery of our salvation:

'O God, in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption'.

I pray that this will be motivation enough to reconnect with the Mass and Eucharist in the coming weeks and months, and be especially so for any child on the First Holy Communion programme to turn the X-Box off and prioritize their preparation, so that they can be admitted to the fullness of the Eucharist as they receive their First Holy Communion.

With every blessing, Fr Simon.

We pray for those who have died: Anna Vent RIP, William Coughlan RIP (NB: it is taking about two weeks to arrange funerals at the moment. Although the 30 limit on funerals was lifted on 17th May, we understand the COVID capacities apply (see below). Other COVID precautions may still apply.

We pray for the sick: Roy Cox, Margaret Pink, Margaret Hitchman, Martin Stiles, David Spooner, Doreen Turner, Martin Murphy, Samuel Barden, Baby Hope Leahy.

Church Capacities: 50 units of people (updated) (up to a max of 66 individuals) at St Martha's and 60 units of people (max 80 individuals) at St Mary Magdalene. See note below "Government Roadmap".

Parish Halls: There is a requirement that the parish must ensure (either by paying a contractor or training a parish volunteer team) that the hall is sanitized after every booking, and that we cannot leave it to the hall hirer. This is what is currently preventing us from re-opening St Martha's hall. Hopefully, this requirement will be relaxed when all restrictions are lifted on 21st June, until then, at the earliest, we do not have a date for re-opening. St Mary Magdalene Hall is currently undergoing, via an insurance claim, extensive repairs following the flood at Easter. Further investigations this week, suggested the damage may have been more significant and a further survey may be needed. Initial conversations with our heating engineer also suggest the boiler in St Mary Magdalene Hall has reached the end of its life.

Gift Aid Offertory Envelopes: we have not ordered any new gift aid offertory envelopes this year as they are expensive and most (due to the pandemic) lay uncollected last year. If you need envelopes, please contact the parish office who will see if your envelopes from last year are still available or put together a pack for you. Alternatively, you could buy a pack of envelopes from any good shop and simply write your gift aid number and date on it. Better still, why not move your offertory online by setting up a standing order. If you need help doing so, contact your bank or the parish office.

From CAFOD: As coronavirus devastates India, CAFOD is working with the local Church agency, Caritas India, to provide vital support. Donations to CAFOD's Coronavirus Appeal will help Caritas India distribute PPE kits to frontline health workers, promote COVID & vaccine awareness campaigns, and set up isolation & quarantine centres.
