Church Cleaning

Thank you to the 99% of people who happily cleaned their own seat after each Mass last week, and for being attentive to those parishioners who needed a little help. This requirement of personal responsibility will be with us for some time, so please be vigilant in ensuring you leave your space COVID-secure for the next person to use the Church. Post COVID (whenever that may be), as the cleaning of the Church is being handed back to parishioners, each Mass community might wish to establish its own cleaning teams to ensure that the House of God is always ready for our worship of God.

Legal Restrictions have been lifted but precautions remain

'It is most important that we exercise great caution in the implementation of this guidance' (Bishop Richard Moth)

Face Coverings: Face coverings are strongly recommended to be worn by those in Church. Bishop Richard says, 'the wearing of face coverings is a protection for others, I urge most strongly that face coverings continue to be worn during the course of celebrations, in accord with the now well-established practice.'

The Lord gave them bread from heaven

The Bread of Life Discourse

Throughout August (except when interrupted by the Assumption), we hear 'the Bread of Life Discourse' in the Gospel. I would encourage all parishioners to take the 'Bread of Life Discourse' as their "Lectio Divina" throughout August, especially so if you are preparing for First Holy Communion. John Chapter 6 is essential reading in understanding what or more importantly, who we receive in Holy Communion.

In this chapter we learn:

- Jesus is the bread of life, who has come down from heaven, and he gives himself for the life of the world.
- Our souls are hungry to be fed, 'give us this bread always', the people say. Jesus is the living bread; whoever eats this bread will live forever, and the bread he gives, is his flesh for the life of the world.
- People struggle to understand the reality of his body and blood, and even today, people tend to reduce the meaning to a symbolic or metaphorical understanding.
- However, Jesus is clear: *"Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.*⁵⁴ *Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day;*⁵⁵ *for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.*⁵⁶ Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.
- Jesus' teachings can be hard, and some people choose to walk away. But like the Apostles, we stay: 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

With my prayers and best wishes, Fr Simon.

Quinquennial Buildings Survey (updated)

The five-year building inspection has been completed this week and the final report will be with us later this summer. Once the report is received, we will work out with the Diocesan Property Team on how to proceed. Leaving aside the presbytery (which needs a major refurbishment), first indications are that the estate is in reasonable condition, but some works are needed, and with our reduced funds and current low income any work presents a significant challenge, so we will update you on any fundraising targets in due course. The Diocesan Property team are looking to move forward for plans for the refurbishment of the presbytery and we are working out possible plans based on cost and viability.

Parish Halls (updated)

The Diocesan Property Team (based on the advice of the insurers) has issued new guidance on hall opening. The requirements are extensive, and we must move forward slowly and cautiously. To open, all the usual Health & Safety precautions must be in place, and all checks up to date. Secondly, each activity requires its own detailed risk assessment. Thirdly, determined by the risk assessment, some of the COVID precautions (face coverings, restricted capacity, and social distancing) may still be required.

Finally, and most importantly, regular cleaning is required: not only, must the hirer clean after their activity, the parish must perform a daily clean. At present, as the parish cannot afford to pay a contractor to clean weekly, let alone daily, this is a major stumbling block. Therefore, to open the hall, even in a limited way, needs a volunteer team of cleaners (and coordinator) to step forward and be trained.

[Remember, St Mary Magdalene Hall is out of commission due to the flood damage].
