SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A.

The Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, Bexhill-on-Sea

Comprising St Mary Magdalene, Town Centre & St Martha's, Little Common

Crib Offering

The Crib offering is for the 'Crisis Fund of the Catholic Children's Society' and will be collected at the cribs in both Churches up until the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (Candlemas), 2nd February 2023.

Church Heating

St Mary Magdalene's heating remains broken. Parts have been ordered but must come from Germany and this will take time. This weekend the mild weather is set to end, and the temperatures are forecast to drop on Sunday and the week ahead. This weekend both 6pm Vigil Mass (14th January) and 11am Mass (15th January) in St Mary Magdalene Church will be celebrated as 'low Mass' (i.e. without music) to ensure brevity in the celebration. If you choose to come, please wrap up warm! The 9am Mass at St Martha's in Little Common will be celebrated as normal. Decisions for 21st and 22nd January will be made on Friday, so please check the online newsletter and the parish Facebook page: www.facebook.com/stmbbexhill

Here I am, Lord! I come to do your will.

In Memorium: Pope Benedict XVI

As the nine days of mourning for Pope Benedict XVI have ended, I would like to share my thoughts on him. In 2005, I was sitting at work in London watching for the 'white smoke' and was concerned with the announcement of Joseph Ratzinger as the new Pope. Like many, I had bought into the media narrative of 'God's Rottweiler', and I was concerned that he would be bad news for the Church. This was also before I began my formation for the priesthood and did not know my faith well enough. His papacy has been a two-fold lesson for me in prejudice, in not allowing a preconception of an individual to cloud my judgement of them, and not to let ignorance of my faith dominate my understanding of it. Much has come to light recently of how he and his family were opposed to the Nazi rule in Germany and that more than anyone in the Church, Pope Benedict spent his Friday penance actively removing rotten priests from ministry. Like many, I was won over by his papal visit to the UK. He was like a 'grandfather' coming to visit his children and this came across clearly when the Seminarians of England and Wales met with him at Oscott Seminary. I was amused that while at tea with the Queen, he drank his beloved Fanta! In 2013, I was one of 41 priests ordained, a (relatively speaking) bumper year, called the 'Benedict Bounce', men who had been inspired by him, many in part of being with him at World Youth Day where he reminded us that we were there not to meet him but have an encounter with Christ. As such, we have also accepted his invitation to make Christ the centre of the liturgy and since 2013, I have often searched for his homilies and writings in support of my own 'ars celebrandi', as well as to inform my preaching, and I think his 3-volume work on 'Jesus of Nazareth' will be a resource that will last the Church for centuries. I do not think it a stretch to think he will at some future date be declared a 'doctor of the Church'. Fr Simon
