Day for Life (Second Collection)

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/day-for-life/>

Life begins at conception, to be protected to natural death. This Sunday is the Church's 'Day for Life'. The theme is 'Listen to Her' and focuses on post-abortion trauma and the impact it has, especially on women. Often the voices of women who have had an abortion are silent, but the hope is we can break this silence and offer opportunities for healing and reconciliation. The message:

CAFOD – Fix the Food System

This weekend, we are invited to sign a letter to the World Bank urging them to protect the rights of farmers around the world to use their seeds, which are the foundation for farmers to produce the food that feeds us all. For generations, small-scale farmers have freely swapped and shared a wide variety of seeds to produce food and maintain biodiversity. More recently, farmers have also developed seeds that ensure crops are resilient to climate change. However, their right to choose what seeds they use is increasingly under threat as new laws are introduced across the world that limit what small farmers can do with their seeds. These laws, supported by global financial institutions overwhelmingly favour large agribusinesses. Instead of being able to choose their own seeds, small farmers must purchase commercial seeds, something that is good for big business profits but not so good for the farmers who grow the majority of the world's food. It's clear that our current global food system is in crisis, and at the heart of this crisis is a struggle over control of the world's seeds. Protecting the freedom of farmers to choose seeds is a right we must stand up for if we are to tackle global hunger while responding to the cry of the earth and the poor. Is there an alternative? Yes! Seed sovereignty is the right for farmers to save, use, exchange and sell their own seeds. It is about farmers having the power to choose the seeds they plant, rather than that power belonging to corporations or international institutions. Small farmers are using seeds banks to let them choose what crops are most appropriate for them. Such methods allow them to grow healthier, more sustainable food, providing for their families, going for higher prices at local market. This organic system can flourish on a grander scale but requires UK government to speak out at the World Bank to create sustainable environment for farmers that trusts their knowledge and empowers them.

We pray for those who have died: Michael Coles, Maureen Theobald, Michael John Frost RIP.

We pray for the sick: Dorothy Smyth, Mary Nash, Mary McElligott, Margaret Hitchman, David Spooner, Doreen Turner, Samuel Barden, Pete Cornfield, Baby Neveah O'Leary, Veronica Phillips, Winifred Broughton, Cecila Weathers, Margaret Carley, Jackie & Laurence Keep, Fr Andrew Pinsent, David Meyer, Stephen Doyle, Ron Harbin, Jean Clifford, Juliet Duffey, Roy Mitchell, Margaret McNamara, Keith Bourne, Leon Barre, Margaret Smythe. Please contact the Parish Office if you wish for Holy Communion at home.
