"Why be envious because I am generous?"

Publication of 2022 Parish Accounts and Update on the Fabric of the Parish Buildings

Today's gospel stresses God's generosity, who is rich in mercy and forgiveness, giving his grace freely to those whom he has chosen in Baptism. For the 'elect', one of the six precepts of the Church is 'to provide for the maintenance and mission of the Church'. This weekend, we publish the accounts of the previous year (2022). Apologies that this is later than usual, but the conversations with the diocese have been complicated, due to the current state of our buildings.

<https://catholicparishofbexhill.files.wordpress.com/2023/09/2022-accounts-and-parish-priest-statement-and-update-on-buildings.pdf>

The above link provides the income v expenditure for 2022 and outlines the challenges we face and the fruit of the conversations with the Bishop, the Trustees, the Diocesan Finance Committee and Property Team. I urge everyone to take some time to read the accounts and accompanying statement, and as always to consider their level of offertory giving, and where possible adding gift aid and making it a standing order. Thank you for your generosity. Fr Simon.

A Call to Service

Church Cleaning: Thank you to the Syro-Malabar community for cleaning St Martha's Church on the Feast of the Assumption in August, and the volunteers who generously offered their time in September to clean St Mary Magdalene Church. Please do not leave it till Christmas to do it again! Ideally, each Church community would appoint a cleaning coordinator, to schedule regular cleaning.

Update on Children's Liturgy of the Word: For this to resume, the first step is for a DBS cleared coordinator to be appointed. Are you this person? Then, we can recruit DBS cleared team members.

Welcomers & Stewards: The fire drill last month showed we need to increase the number of welcomers and stewards at all Sunday Masses and for Funerals. Are you this person? Please contact the office.

St Martha's: A contractor does the main gardening, but we still need volunteer(s) to grit the paths, prune the roses, clip the hedge when it blocks the public path & be on call for minor issues that might arise.

Marriage Preparation: The Parish & Deanery urgently needs parishioners to help run a short Diocesan designed and approved Marriage Preparation Course for engaged couples, now a mandatory part of their preparation. It is run over four 2-hour sessions on dates and times you would choose, and all materials are provided. Volunteers can be couples or individuals and all training would be given. It is an enjoyable course and one where you, with your experience of marriage, have a great deal to offer the couples looking to spend the rest of their lives together. To join this ministry, please contact Deacon Simon.
