Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, B.

The Parish of Our Lady of the Rosary, Bexhill-on-Sea

Comprising St Mary Magdalene, Town Centre & St Martha's, Little Common

Extracts from the Pastoral Plan

<https://www.abdiocese.org.uk/news/bishop-richards-new-pastoral-plan>

It is best to read the whole plan, but some pertinent paragraphs will be shared in the newsletter.

1.7: We must keep our minds and hearts fixed on Christ, The Word who is Life, the One Who is our Subject, the One who gives Himself to us in the Eucharist and Who sends us out, in the power of the Holy Spirit to be His instruments, to be the earthenware vessels that hold the treasure that is the message of Life.

3.2.i: Formation, beginning with and grounded in prayer, leads us to be ever closer to Christ, conformed to Him. Formation requires deeper understanding of Scriptures, especially the Gospels...

3.2.viii: In the previous editions of the Pastoral Plan, reference was made to the stable ministries of Lector, Acolyte and Catechist... Those who discern the call to these ministries make application in 2025.

The Parish Office

Due to our lone working policies, the Parish Office is open by appointment, or by pre-arrangement only.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Sunday of the Word of God

Pope Francis has designated this Sunday, 'The Sunday of the Word of God', so that we may be opened to the rich treasury of the Scriptures. More information at the Bishops Conference:

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/sunday-of-the-word-of-god/>

We are grateful to those who proclaim God's Word at Mass, especially for their prayerful preparation so that they read the scriptures with clarity and understanding. Pope Francis is opening the Ministry of Lector (previously reserved as a step toward ordination) to all faithful Catholics who have discerned this call – applications in 2025. The Lector reads or sings the Word of God in the liturgical assembly, except for the Gospel. This includes the Psalm when there is no cantor. The Lector presents the general intercession when there is no deacon or cantor. As Bishop Richard said in the 2nd edition of the Pastoral Plan, 'The Lector also has the function of directing the singing and participation of the faithful and has a role in instructing the faithful in the reception of the Sacraments. The Lector also has the function of preparing others to read the Scriptures during the Liturgy'. As such this responsibility requires reading, reflection, and formation on God's Word. The 1st reading shows that the preaching of God's Word (liturgically by the priest or deacon, or through the community's commissioning at the end of Mass) has an aim, not to make us feel all 'warm and fuzzy', but to bring about our conversion. We announce to others 'that the time has come, and the Kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent and believe in the Good News'. First though we need to look in the mirror and ask ourselves what we still need to do in conforming our hearts, minds and will to God, otherwise we might be accused of hypocrisy. The Sacred Lenten Season is now not that far away, and we should start thinking what we might do to show God of our 'efforts to renounce evil behaviour.' May our study of the Sacred Scriptures, help us know the way of the Lord so that we may walk in his truth. God bless. Fr Simon.

Parking in our Church Car Parks: St Mary Magdalene & St Martha's.

Our car parks have limited spaces. When full, please park legally off-site. Please respect the coned off areas and do not move them. These cones / areas are there to keep cars and people apart, allowing for the safe ingress and egress of pedestrians (who under the revised Highway Code, have priority). The cones are in place to stop people obstructing fire exits. Please do not double park, which prevents access by emergency vehicles if the situation arises. The public car park in Little Common is £1 for 4 hours.

And finally - Thank you from the Knights of St Columba: The Hastings & Rother Branch reports that monies from the Christmas Posters and a recent Quiz raised £1200 which have been passed to the Hastings, Bexhill and Battle Food Banks (£600) and the other £600 to local charities in the Catholic Parishes of Hastings, St Leonard's and Bexhill, which we have passed onto the SVP. Thank you for your ongoing support.
