16th June 2024

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, B.

It is good to give you thanks, O Lord.

St Alban, First Christian Martyr of England

Thursday 20th June is the Memorial of St Alban and so, at 6.30pm in St Mary Magdalene, we will celebrate Mass for his feast day. St Alban was the first English Christian martyr, dying in 209AD. He was a Roman Soldier serving near the Hertfordshire city that now holds his name. The Romans held Christianity with deep suspicion. They would have added Christ to their pantheon of 'gods', but we hold there is only one God in three persons, excluding any possibility of us acknowledging roman deities, also an explicit rejection of the emperor's own claim to divinity, meaning Christians could not make the customary temple offerings. Alban was sympathetic to Christians suffering persecution, giving shelter to a priest of Jesus Christ, helping him escape. Alban was arrested and asked to make an offering to the Roman 'gods' to atone for his actions. He refused because the holiness of the priest had converted him. St Alban's Shrine was a popular place of Pilgrimage until the Reformation, but today, the relics of St Alban remain in St Alban's Cathedral.

'Thameslink Pilgrimage' to St Albans

On Fridays, at 12noon there is a Catholic Mass in the Cathedral, so on Friday 21st June, I am making a personal pilgrimage to St Albans. If you wish to join me, please meet me at Bexhill Station at 8:15am in time to buy 'group save' tickets for 8:37am train, changing onto 9:49am 'Thameslink' at Haywards Heath, arriving at St Albans's City at 11:11am (Bring a drink for the train). If needed, we can get a taxi from the station to the Cathedral. (If coming by car the postcode is AL1 1BY). We return on the 15:57 train from St Albans. After Mass, we have been promised a chance to venerate St Alban's relic. For lunch, either bring a packed lunch, otherwise there is time to get lunch locally in St Albans town.

God bless, Fr Simon.
