15th September 2024

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, B

I will walk in the presence of the Lord, in the land of the living.

'Evangelii Gaudium – The Joy of the Gospel'

This Sunday is known as 'Evangelii Gaudium' Day after Pope Francis's Apostolic Exhortation by that name in 2013. That document begins "The joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus". For those of you who may be interested to read a summary rather than all 52,000 words one can be found online here:

<https://www.catholicworldreport.com/2013/11/26/a-helpful-summary-of-the-apostolic-exhortation-evangelii-gaudium/>

In that document, he was really inviting the Catholic Church to be joyous in proclaiming the faith – seeking new ways of understanding the faith and reaching out to others.

The director of Mission at the Bishops Conference says:

"Central to that work of mission, the Catholic Bishops of England and Wales seek to support that work in parishes and to be a conduit where information can be gathered, and people can give and receive information and share good practice about what is going on across England and Wales to bring people to faith and to form them in faith. They are instituting the ministries of catechist, lector and acolyte – supporting Pope Francis' desire that we formally institute catechists for the Church and admit more lay people into the ministry of reader and acolyte.

Q: What is an acolyte? It used to just be for those on their way to priesthood so seminarians, those training to be priests, would be instituted as readers and acolytes. But Pope Francis has said that everyone should be able to do these, female and male alike, and the hope would be that we will gradually begin to introduce these into the life of the Church in England and Wales. In our parishes we have Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion – those lay people who assist in distributing Holy Communion – but also in visiting the sick and in having an outreach in the parish. So, I think the Holy Father wants to say that this is an important ministry in the Church and it's now more open".

God Bless, Deacon Simon Kirkdale.

Looking out for the vulnerable visitor: Thank you to Fr Chris Benyon, our welcomers and other parishioners who were attentive to the young visitor to St Mary Magdalene whose safety needed an urgent safeguarding intervention by the Police.
