CONCERCRATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA & REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY Yr 9th November 2025

The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place, the abode of the Most High.

This morning I was travelling over the West Hill in Hastings on the 328 bus. This is one of my favourite views, looking down over the Old Town and over to the East Hill, with the sea gently lapping at the shore. This morning was a particularly fine time to be there, as a shift of beautiful sunlight pierced the gloom of the clouds.

As we approach Remembrance Sunday, the sight of the English Channel can remind one of the flotilla of small boats, from Thames pleasure cruisers to, especially on our part of the coast, our fishing fleet, who so bravely set out to rescue soldiers from the horrors of the war-torn beaches of Dunkerque. World War II epitomises the Church's teaching on a just war- to defend our country, and freedom in the world.
Let us pray for the repose of the souls of all those in World War II and in other conflicts who lay down their lives so that we might live in peace and freedom.

We also celebrate the Consecration of the Lateran Basilica this weekend. This reminds us of a different area of Church teaching: that God has provided us with great Popes, up to and definitely including Pope Leo, whose Cathedral St John Lateran is, to guide and protect us.

By the time you read this, we will no longer own the Presbytery and Hall at St Mary Magdalene. We are entering a new phase in the life of St Mary Magdalene's and St Martha's. We commemorate most definitely all that God has done for us, just as in both our feasts this weekend, but we look forward to a new era in Bexhill and Little Common. The light broke the clouds this morning: may God's love illumine our path forward.

God bless, Fr Stephen.

We pray for those who have died: Sr John Oglivie, Colin Andrews RIP.

We pray for the sick: Dorothy Smyth, Margaret Hitchman, David Spooner, Samuel Barden, Pete Cornfield, Baby Neveah O'Leary, Cecila Weathers, Margaret Carley, Jackie & Laurence Keep, Stephen Doyle, Ron Harbin, Jean Clifford, Margaret McNamara, Elizabeth Doust, Pat Payne, David Ball, Neal Sheppard, Fr Andrew Pinsent, Sian Stevens, John O'Brien, Kate Brignall, Sally Moore, Gaynor Mitchell, Terence Phillips, Veronica Bennett.
